MINISTRY-FOCUSED OPPORTUNITY

Tenika Davis, a former CUDS student, and her three children, recently lost their home to a fire. They are currently living in temporary housing provided by the Red Cross in Birmingham, AL. An account has been set-up to assist this family during their time of need. If you would like to give a donation to this family, please see Lynn Brinkley. Checks should be made payable to Campbell University Divinity School.

THETA ALPHA KAPPA

Theta Alpha Kappa is the National Honor Society for Religious and Theological Studies. TAK is the premier national organization that recognizes academic excellence among students of religion and theology. It looks great on résumés and it creates collegiality with other TAK members on campus and across the nation. As a member, you will receive the Theta Alpha Kappa Journal, be eligible for certain national scholarships, essay competitions, and participation in the broader TAK organization.

All students enrolled in graduate studies at the Campbell University Divinity School (whether M.Div. or otherwise) are eligible for induction and membership if they have 1) completed at least one half of the residency requirements for their current degree program at an institution with a local chapter of TAK, and 2) attained at least a 3.5 (or B+) grade point average in this course work.

If you meet these qualifications and are interested in joining, please send an email to Dr. English at englisha@campbell.edu. He serves as our local chapter moderator and will respond to you with online application information. Deadline for contacting him is Friday January 30th. Once you contact Dr. English, he will inform you about the induction process and the ceremony.

We grieve with Thomas Greene over the passing of his grandfather.

We celebrate that Kenny Vandergriff's article titled, "διαθήκην καινήν: New Covenant as Jewish Apocalyptic in Hebrews 8," is going to be published later this year in the Catholic Biblical Quarterly. Congratulations, Kenny!
